

History of Belleville Catholic Diocese Publications Update

Our greatly anticipated anniversary celebration history publications arrived in Los Angeles on January 19th. Pending customs clearance, we expect transport to St. Louis either the week of February 5th or the 12th for processing. Deliveries will begin within a day or two of arrival. Pending no delays, anticipated completion of deliveries are expected to be by February 17th, the following week or sooner.

Posters have already gone out and should arrive in the next few days to all parishes who pre-ordered and may be displayed for interested parish/diocese members in reserving copies.

If you have questions please refer to your original order forms for company and USA contact information and to answer questions.
