

God in America, Public Screening Event
Monday, October 11 at 6pm
St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church Fellowship Hall
303 S. Poplar Carbondale, IL.

Join WSIU-TV Public Broadcast Stations and the Interfaith Council for a free public screening of portions of God in America, followed by an open discussion, at the fellowship hall of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church. Refreshments will be provided.

God in America, a presentation of American Experience and Frontline, will examine the potent and complex interaction between religion and democracy, the origins of the American concept of religious liberty, and the controversial evolution of that idea in the nation's courts and political arena.

God in America
Monday, Oct 11-Wed, October 12
(repeats 10/12, 12am; 10/13, 12 & 2am, 10/14 12 & 2am; 10/15 2am)

A New Adam/A New Eden 10/11, 8-10pm
The first hour explores the origins of America's unique religious landscape, while hour two considers the origins of American's experiment in religious liberty.

A Nation Reborn/ New Light 10/12, 8-10pm
These hours explore how religion suffused the Civil War and how the forces of modernity challenged traditional faith and drove a wedge between liberal and conservative believers.

Soul of a Nation/ Of God and Caesar 10/13, 8-10pm
The final two hours explore the post-World War II era and bring the series into the present day.
