

Just A Life or A Just Life

Do you ever find yourself thinking: Is God asking something more of me?

Step aside and engage in a review of your journey in faith and the seven spiritual and corporal works of mercy. We will consider, also, basic Scriptural and spiritual truths which challenge us to care for our 'dear neighbor.'

Presenter: Sr. Sara Dwyer, ASC

Sr. Sara has been involved in Adult Education and Retreat Ministry for over 30 years at both the diocesan and parish level.

Currently, she is a member of the Paulist Fathers' Formation Team and serves as a retreat and adult education facilitator in the D.C. area.

She served as the NETWORK Education Program Coordinator, which is the partner with NETWORK, A National Catholic Social Justice Lobby, in D.C. She is a member of the Adorers' Justice and Peace Committee.

Sr. Sara has Master degrees in Theology from St Mary's University, San Antonio, TX and in Education from Boston College.
