

New Faces

The Diocese of Belleville welcomes Elaine Nastoff, Staff Accountant, to the Finance Office. Elaine was hired after Denise Trame, who was employed with us for twenty-four (24) years, left the diocese to pursue employment opportunities with Clinton County as the County Treasurer. Elaine brings 28 years of experience in bookkeeping to the diocese with primary focus in accounts receivables, accounts payables, payroll, maintenance of general ledger and job costing.

Elaine's primary tasks for the diocese include preparing financial statements, reports and analysis; maintaining the general ledger; performing bank reconciliations; maintaining diocesan Parish and Agency Resource Fund including preparation of monthly statements, and assisting in the computation of earnings and preparation of quarterly reports to the participants of the Catholic Community Foundation.

Elaine lives in Shiloh with her husband, Nick, and children Elizabeth and Michael. They are members of St. Clare Parish, O'Fallon, Illinois.

Elaine can be reached by phone at the Chancery at 277-8181 extension 1291 or by direct line at 722-5014 or by email at enastoff@diobelle.org.

Please keep both Elaine Nastoff and Denise Trame in prayer as they transition into new employment ventures.
