

New Faces

The Diocese of Belleville welcomes Mrs. Angela Barber, Executive Administrative Assistant, to Bishop Edward K. Braxton, Ph.D, S.T.D. Angela was hired after Elizabeth Nussbaumer left the diocese to pursue other employment opportunities. Angela brings nearly twenty years of executive administrative and office management experience to the position.

Angela's primary tasks for the diocese include providing administrative support, coordinating special projects, meetings and events and calendar management including, but not limited to, Parish Visitations, School Visitations, Confirmation and USCCB commitments.

Angela lives in O'Fallon with her husband, Dan, and they have three children. Angela and Dan, along with their youngest daughter, are members of St. Nicholas Parish, O'Fallon, Illinois.

Angela can be reached by phone at the Chancery at 618-277-8181 extension 1081 or by direct line at 618-722-5003 or email at abarber@diobelle.org.

Please keep both Angela Barber and Elizabeth Nussbaumer in prayer as they transition into new employment ventures.
