

Help us celebrate Cardinal Baseball in Busch Stadium at "Family & Friends of Youth Ministry" Day at the ballpark on Sunday, June 20, 2010. The St. Louis Cardinals will play the Oakland Athletics at 1:15 p.m.

This day provides a wonderful opportunity for youth, family and friends to share in friendship-building opportunities while enjoying fellowship among other Catholic youth and their adult leaders. It's a chance to enrich family and personal relationships through conversation, relaxation and community in support of our Diocesan youth ministry efforts.

In honor of this game being on June 20th, we have decided to rollback our price to $20.00 (a savings of $3.00 from last year.) Your ticket includes a coupon for a free hotdog and soda at the Park plus a plastic bat and ball for all fans 15 and under! What a deal! Only 200 tickets are available, which will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis, so ORDER NOW using the Registration Form included within this brochure.

All adults (age 21 & over) who attend this event with your parish group as a chaperone must be listed on the Registration Form and also must be in compliance with the Belleville Diocesan Child Protection Policy. Contact your Parish Location Coordinator or the Office of Child Protection at 618.212.0050 with any questions on this policy.

Stadium Highlights

The premium spaces of the New Busch Stadium bring the comforts of conditioned space and gourmet food offerings to many fans. But all fans will be able to experience service upgrades in several key areas. Wider concourses all around, elevators and escalators between levels and perfect baseball sight lines for all seats in the Ballpark are improvements over old Busch Stadium.

Every fan who comes to the Ballpark will also enjoy improved concessions, family entertainment options and restroom conveniences. There are also a number of unique standing room and group gathering areas that will give fans limitless opportunities to roam the Ballpark and take in spectacular views of the action on the field.

It's a Special 20/20 Day Celebration at Beautiful Busch Stadium!
